God's promises to Israel include salvation

When God chose Israel to be the people through whom His plan of redemption would come to the whole world, He made several promises.

Some are about Israel growing and multiplying as a people, as in Genesis 26:4a, where the Lord says to Isaac, "I will make your offspring as numerous as the stars of the sky."

Other promises are about the territory that God would give them. "I give this land to your offspring, from the brook of Egypt to the Euphrates River." (Gen. 15:18) Still others are about the fruitfulness of the land: "They shall plant vineyards and drink wine from them; they shall also make gardens and eat fruit from them." (Amos 9:14b).

But the most important promise God made to Israel is their salvation.

- "I will purify them from all the wrongs they have committed against Me, and I will forgive all the wrongs they have committed against Me." (Jeremiah 33:8)
- "I will put My Spirit in you, and you will live." (Ezekiel 37:14a)
- "Brothers, my heart's desire and prayer to God concerning them [Israel] is for their salvation!" (Romans 10:1)
- "A partial hardening has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in; and so all Israel will be saved," (Romans 11:25-26)

This is why Jewish evangelism is at the core of our Mission Statement.

Chosen People Ministries exists to pray for, evangelize, disciple, and serve Jewish people everywhere, and to partner with fellow believers to do the same.

Giving Tuesday

God's promises to Israel include salvation (continued)

Speaking of evangelism, Hanukkah, the Feast of Dedication or Festival of Lights, is a great opportunity to talk about Messiah Yeshua (Jesus) with your not-yet-believing Jewish friends.

Candles and light are central themes of this feast. Jesus is the Light of the world, and He wants to be the light living in your friend's heart.

Just as the Jerusalem temple was rededicated to the Lord after it was recovered from the Seleucids, we should also rededicate our whole lives to the Lord in faith and in service.

A small group of Jewish rebels, the Maccabees, was able to defeat a great enemy army. No matter how strong or weak we may be, in the power of the Holy Spirit, we can overcome any obstacle and confront the attacks of our enemy the Devil!

Hanukkah comes earlier this year, in the first week of December. We offer evangelism resources to help you share Messiah with your Jewish friends. Some of the most effective resources are the video testimonies at IFoundShalom.com. Also see the Hanukkah guide offered below.

Thank you for your prayers, financial support, and partnership in Jewish evangelism.

May the Lord use you to help us bring the "lost sheep of Israel" into a saving relationship with Jesus, the Jewish Messiah!

Until all Israel is saved,

Jorge Sedaca

NEW PROJECT 2027

We are exploring a potential new project for 2027: an online training course in Jewish evangelism.

Evangelizing Jewish people is a core piece of our mission—and so is helping others to do the same.

When it comes to sharing the gospel with Jewish people, Chosen People Ministries Canada has a wealth of knowledge and experience gained over decades in ministry. How can we help the greatest number of people in Canada to benefit from that expertise? By using cutting-edge online learning technology.

The course would give students a biblical foundation for Jewish evangelism, enhance cultural awareness and relational understanding, and provide practical tools to effectively share the gospel with Jewish people.

Delivered online, the course would be self-paced. Students can watch teaching videos, respond to reflection prompts, test their knowledge, access recommended resources, practice what they have learned, and earn certificates of completion.

WE NEED YOUR FEEDBACK!

Before we invest in this project, we would value your input. Please answer our 3-question survey here. It should take less than two minutes.

A season of generosity is around the corner

GIVING TUESDAY Dec 1

December 1 is Giving Tuesday, but many Canadians have begun to give to their favourite causes and charities before the end of the year. Every bit of generosity helps us advance the gospel even further.
