September 2018

Dear Canadian Partner in Ministry,

As we reach the last days of our short Canadian summer, the Scripture verse that keeps popping into my mind is Psalm 102:13, which says, "You will rise up and have compassion on Zion, for it is time to show favour to her—the appointed time has come."

I have mentioned previously that I strongly believe the time is now to proclaim salvation to Zion (Israel) and the Jewish people. Events around the world – particularly in the Middle East – are happening at a rapid pace. Signs of God's time to bless Israel in a special way seem very clear.

Growing Interest in Spiritual Things

What has impressed me the most is the increased interest in spiritual matters among Jewish people – both young and older. I saw this firsthand in Israel as we engaged with locals during our July tour. I more recently saw it last month in Argentina while visiting our Mission there. I had the privilege of speaking about Messiah to an audience of 70 people – of which 40 % were Jewish! And, also last month, I saw it in Winnipeg where our congregation is full of people excited about Yeshua and thirsty for His Word!

So, what are we doing in Canada to seize this appointed time?

The Fall Feasts of the Lord

We're celebrating the Fall Feasts of the Lord this month and preaching Yeshua:

Rosh HaShanah, the Jewish civil New Year, is referred to as the Feast of Trumpets in the Old Testament (Leviticus 23:23-25). It is a time of celebration, thanksgiving, and rejoicing in the Lord for His creation and faithfulness. It marks the beginning of the Ten Days of Awe before the reflective and contemplative Yom Kippur.

Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement (Leviticus 23:26-32), is the holiest day for Israel. It is marked with fasting, prayers of confession and special services at the synagogue. The scapegoat of the Old Testament typifies Messiah Jesus' sacrifice on the cross, carrying upon Himself the sins of the world. God provided a final sacrifice for all, Jews and Gentiles alike!

Sukkot, the Feast of Tabernacles (Leviticus 23:33-36), is an eight-day celebration under the sukkah, a temporary dwelling, remembering the years in the wilderness after the exodus from Egypt. It features food, fun, and rejoicing in God's faithfulness.

The Toronto Messianic Centre

We're starting construction of the 2nd floor at the Toronto Messianic Centre. Yes, you read correctly! The City of Toronto has given final approval of the building permits, so construction is about to start.

- ✧ Pray that the weather cooperates and that the structure can be enclosed before winter weather arrives.
- ✧ Pray that the funding will continue to flow so that we can fulfill all our commitments.
- ✧ Pray that the construction company and crew will do their job efficiently, properly and in a timely manner. Pray for their safety on the job.
- ✧ And pray for our in-house staff as we adjust our working conditions during this construction project.
- ✧ Pray that, once the building is finished, it will be a place where more Jewish people find Messiah and believers are trained in Jewish Ministry!

Toronto-Israel Conference 2018

We're hosting the Toronto-Israel Conference on November 2-3 at Evangel Temple. The theme this year is "Whose Land Is It Anyway?" and will focus on what the Bible has to say about the Land of Israel. We want to provide Biblical clarity to the many confusing voices on this subject.

Dr. Michael Brown, well-known Messianic Jewish author, apologist, and leader, will be our main speaker. Other speakers include Dr. Mitch Glaser, Professor David Sedaca, Rev. Joe Gray, Messianic Rabbi Ben Volman and myself. Marty Goetz will lead in worship with his great talent and sweet spirit.

For more details, please see the enclosed brochure or go to www.torontoisraelconference.ca. Online registration and discounted prices are available until October 26.

All These Things We Do ...

All these things we do to glorify Adonai, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and to exalt Messiah Yeshua in the power of the Holy Spirit.

All these things we do to bring the message of salvation and hope that is found only in Yeshua to our dear Jewish brothers and sisters here in Canada.

All these things we do to help our Christian brothers and sisters understand that God has not forgotten His chosen people and still has a loving plan for them.

All these things we do by the grace of God and through the loving support of Partners like you who stand with us in our mission! Thank you!
