ISRAEL: THE CENTRE OF WORLD EVENTS & THE CENTRE OF GOD'S HEART

April 2021

Dear Canadian Partner in Jewish Missions,

Shalom in Yeshua's mighty name! I want to update you on our Mission, but so many things have taken place during the last month that it's hard to know where to begin.

Passover

In spite of the pandemic and restrictions in place, celebrations of Israel's liberation from slavery in Egypt took place here in Canada and around the world.

For followers of Jesus, the Feast is a vivid and powerful reminder of God's miraculous way of taking care of our own slavery to sin. Every symbol and ceremony of the Passover points to our Triune God and particularly to the Son of God, Yeshua the Messiah, "the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world" (John 1:29).

Some of our Canadian Missionaries had the privilege of leading live Messiah in the Passover events at churches and congregations in Canada and two in the United States. God continues to touch lives through this Gospel presentation!

Holy Week & Resurrection Day

Whether in a Messianic congregation or a church setting, it was exciting to proclaim, sing and celebrate that JESUS IS ALIVE! Through His suffering and death, He shed His blood so that you and I and the whole of humanity have access to God's mercy, grace and forgiveness of sins. He truly paid it all! And, by trusting in His atoning sacrifice, we are made righteous before the Father and given the gift of eternal life! As if this weren't enough, Yeshua's resurrection guarantees our own resurrection and a place in His eternal Kingdom! Glory be to God for His bountiful blessings!

The Middle East Situation

Israel's safety is always a major concern to us. Among Israel's neighbours, Iran is particularly dangerous given its history with the Jewish nation. This month, in the midst of international talks to limit Iran's nuclear capabilities, there was an attack on Iran's nuclear fuel-production centre in Natanz. In response, Iran vowed to increase uranium enrichment to 60%, which is closer to the 90% level required for the production of nuclear weapons. Please make this issue a matter of concerted prayer before the Lord. May He guide world leaders with wisdom from on high to manage this situation for everyone's safety.

Israel Remembers

Three days in April have special significance to Jewish people worldwide.

Yom HaShoah – Holocaust Memorial Day

On April 8, we remembered the horrors of Jewish persecution and annihilation during WWII. Many within our own staff lost loved ones during that dark time.

The pain and suffering inflicted on our people are ingrained in the Jewish soul in a way that moves us to remember and never forget. Only Yeshua's "peace that passes all understanding" (Philippians 4:7) can heal our hearts and allow us to find solace in times of sorrow. Pray that, with your partnership, Chosen People Ministries will continue to be a channel of hope to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile (Romans 1:16). We rejoice in seeing Jewish lives transformed by the power and love of Yeshua.

Yom HaZikaron – Israel Remembrance Day

April 14 is the day Israel honours its soldiers and others who gave their lives defending their country or who were victims of terror attacks. Join us in praying that the families of these victims will find comfort and strength in Jesus and come to know Him as their Messiah. Please remember our workers in Israel as they minister to so many.

Yom HaAtzma'ut – Israel Independence Day

Psalm 30:5 reminds us, "Weeping may last for the night, but joy comes in the morning." After a day of quiet reflection during Yom HaZikaron, Israel celebrated its modern beginning in 1948. The promise of God to give birth to a nation in one day was fulfilled then (Isaiah 66:8)!

This is a reminder to us that our Lord keeps His promises to Israel. He is not done with the Jewish people yet. His promises, prophecies and plans for Israel will continue to be fulfilled in God's time. What an assurance that is to you and me! Why? Because God's faithfulness to Israel guarantees His promises to you and me. Let's celebrate!

Israel in God's Heart

The message of the Bible is clear: God chose a people from among all peoples, to bring His plan of salvation first to His chosen people and then to all the nations of the world. Israel is described as the apple of God's eye, a holy and special people, and with many other terms in Scripture. He wants all individuals and nations to surrender to Messiah Jesus as their Saviour and Lord.

As you and your church or congregation go out into your community to share the Good News of salvation, do not forget to be part of God's plan to save the Jewish people. If you don't know of any Jewish people in your area, you can pray for Jewish people in other places and financially support our efforts in Canada and around the world.

Thank you for being our partner in Jewish missions!

Until all Israel is saved,

Jorge Sedaca
Executive Director
