August 2021

Dear Jewish Missions Partner,

I hope you're enjoying the warm weather our Canadian summer brings. I want to take this opportunity to share with you an update of what God is doing in and through your Mission.

Congregations Regathering

As provinces move toward reopening, our Messianic Congregations are starting to meet in person again. Kehilat Ha Tikvah / Congregation of Hope (formerly Haverim Mashiach) in Winnipeg and Kehilah Kumi Ori / Arise & Shine Congregation in Hamilton have started holding Shabbat services at their regular meeting places. Since not all congregants are comfortable meeting in person, the congregations continue to livestream the services for those still at home.

Kehillat Eytz Chaim / Tree of Life Congregation in Toronto is making plans to restart in person services in for the High Holy Day season in September. Meanwhile, their online audience has grown to well over 100 participants each week. Please pray that each congregation will stay strong preaching Messiah Jesus to lost Jewish and Gentile seekers.

Jewish Seekers Trusting Messiah

Over the phone, through social media or by email, we continue to lead individuals to faith in Jesus. Here is one of the latest stories from Marilou, our Office Administrator:

Most of the telephone calls I receive at our Canadian Headquarters in Toronto are from supporters. It's always a pleasure to speak with them and, over the years, some have become dear friends in the Lord.

But in July, I took a different kind of call when a Jewish woman from New York phoned our office. Why did she phone us? I'm not sure, but the Lord clearly sent her our way.

Rose (all names changed) explained that she was tormented by thoughts of a sin she may or may not have committed many years ago. I chatted with her for some time about how we can be sure of forgiveness for any sin when we repent and turn to the Lord.

As Rose and I continued to discuss spiritual matters, Anna, one of our Toronto missionaries, "just happened" to drop by and joined in the conversation.

Before long, Rose prayed on the telephone with us. She received Messiah Jesus as her Lord and Saviour! Hallelujah!

We encouraged Rose to visit two of our evangelistic websites for more information (isaiah53.ca and ifoundshalom.com).

In a follow-up phone call, we learned that Rose had downloaded a Bible app on her phone, so we encouraged her to begin reading John's Gospel and the Psalms. We also re-emphasized that God is always with her ... and introduced the idea of God's Spirit being in her to teach and guide her.

New Missionaries Needed

We're looking beyond the pandemic. Without hesitation, our primary goal is to continue reaching out to the Jewish community in Canada with the Good News of Jesus the Messiah. There are Jewish communities in this country who need our witness. If you or someone you know are interested in Jewish missions and sense God's call to full-time ministry, please contact us so we can talk about future opportunities.

What are we looking for in a prospective missionary? Many of Chosen People Ministries' missionaries are Jewish, but not all. So don't let your Gentile background hold you back.

We're interested in men and women who have a vibrant relationship with the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and God's Son, Jesus or, to use His Hebrew name, Yeshua.

We especially want to work with people who have a passion for God's chosen people and are committed to sharing the Good News with them.

Some of our missionaries lead Messianic congregations. Some are involved in Bible studies and evangelistic events. Some are focused on preparing written and electronic outreaches – reaching Jewish people through printed resources, the web and social media. But all share their faith in Jesus one-to-one.

Our goal is to work with missionary staff to find their special areas of gifting and calling and stand with them as they serve the Lord.

For more information, please write to info@chosenpeople.ca and someone from our staff will contact you. Also be watching for our promotional video coming soon.

Partner Churches Needed

After many months of not speaking at churches in person, our missionaries are eager to visit your church to share their testimonies, or a message from God's Word on Israel, the Feasts of the Lord, or a number of other topics. By now, many churches across Canada are open for in-person services.

If your church is one of these, why not suggest to your pastor that he invite one of our missionaries to speak on a Sunday? It could be any Sunday or it could be during a Missions emphasis. In September, Jewish people celebrate Rosh HaShanah, Yom Kippur and Sukkot. These are great opportunities to have one of our representatives explain their meaning to your congregation. Even as your church makes plans for Christmas, why not have someone speak on Hanukkah, the Festival of Lights?

Have your Pastor, your Missions leader or an elder call our office (1-888-442-5535) or email us (guestspeaker@chosenpeople.ca) to discuss possibilities. You and your church will be blessed!

Thank you for your continued partnership through your prayers and financial support. Enjoy reading our enclosed July/August newsletter.

Until all Israel is saved,

Jorge Sedaca
Executive Director
