“For I was hungry,
and you gave Me something to eat;
I was thirsty,
and you gave Me something to drink;
I was a stranger, and you invited Me in;
naked, and you clothed Me;
I was sick, and you visited Me;
I was in prison, and you came to Me.”
Matthew 25:35-36

March 2022

Dear Jewish Missions Partner,

Who would have thought something other than COVID-19 could capture the world’s attention so quickly? But that is exactly what has happened with the Russian invasion of Ukraine.

Though the pandemic has affected each of us in a very personal way, the war in Ukraine may seem far away and quite removed from Canada. But its effects are now being felt in more indirect ways. The price of basic goods such as food, medicine and gasoline are soaring daily – a direct result of a world economy that is very much interconnected and dependent on other countries’ resources.

Still, no matter how difficult things are for us in North America, nothing compares to what the people of Ukraine are experiencing. They are faced with enemy attacks on every hand, massive destruction of property and, most concerning, lack of water, food and medicine needed merely to survive. There is also the uncertainty of not knowing where the enemy will next attack and the fear of being the next target.

Worst of all are the thousands of lives lost and the even higher number of those wounded from Russia’s attacks. Many families are being destroyed by the war. Wives and children have been separated from their husbands and fathers since all Ukrainian men ages 18 to 60 are obligated to defend their country. Thousands of women and children are seeking refuge and safety in neighbouring Poland and other European countries. There is devastation, an uncertain future, fear and desperation.

The suffering also extends to the people of Russia. Most of them were also caught by surprise by this war. They are divided in their support of the Russian government. The Russian people are suffering the consequences of the economic sanctions the western world has imposed on Russia. They will suffer social impact from casualties among Russia’s military and the coming isolation from the rest of the world.

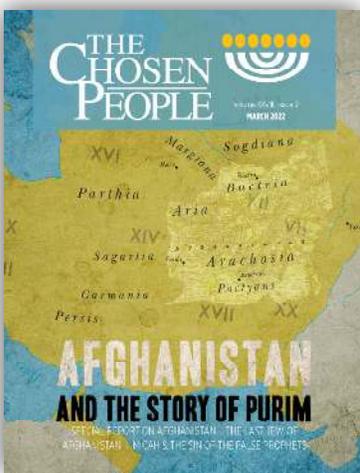

What Can We Do About It?

There are at least two things that you and I can do. The first one is PRAY.

- Pray that God will intervene to change Vladimir Putin’s heart and make him desist from his evil intentions.
- Pray that God will give wisdom to other world leaders so that they make decisions that will save lives and restore justice, order and peace.

Thank you for blessing God’s chosen people!
Please remember
Chosen People Ministries in your will.

- Pray for the people of Ukraine who have lost or are losing family members, homes, jobs and hope for a better future.
- Pray for Jewish people in Ukraine; they are often the target of harsher treatment and anti-semitism.
- Pray for the protection of Jewish believers in Ukraine. Pray that they will be salt and light in this dark time.
- Pray for our workers in Ukraine and Russia as they minister to people on both sides of this conflict.
- Pray that many will find hope and salvation in Jesus, for this world and for all eternity.

The second thing you can do is GIVE to help relieve the suffering in Ukraine and among the refugees.

We have set up our Ukraine Emergency Relief Fund to respond to urgent needs on the ground. These funds go directly to our representatives in Europe to assist the desperate refugees with food, medicine, clothing, travel and relocation needs. As soon as a request comes from our Missionaries in the area, we are releasing funds to be used as they see fit.

During and after World War 2, Chosen People Ministries' staff in Europe worked desperately and diligently to rescue and minister to the traumatized, needy Jewish people (and others!) suffering from the war and the Holocaust. My own father ministered in this way in Spain.

Can we do any less today?

Jesus said, "Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it to one of these brothers of Mine, even the least of them, you did it to Me" (Matthew 25:40b).

Will you help us feed, clothe and house the frightened people of Ukraine?

You can donate securely online at chosenpeople.ca. You can call our office at 1-888-442-5535 (Tuesday-Thursday, 9am-4:30pm) to give by credit card. You can mail your cheque to us (make cheques out to Chosen People Ministries and designate to Ukraine Fund). You can also give by eTransfer at egive@chosenpeople.ca (designate to Ukraine Fund). For more information on available methods of donation, visit chosenpeople.ca/donateonline/ways-to-give.

Thank you for your prayers and generosity during these urgent and difficult times. Your support is helping Jewish people come to know the love and compassion of our Messiah Yeshua through these acts of kindness. And many lives will be saved for eternity thanks to your partnership!

Until all Israel is saved,

Jorge Sedaca
Executive Director
