March 2024

Dear Canadian Jewish Missions Partner,
Shalom in Yeshua's name! It is my pleasure to write to you once again.

Antisemitism in Ancient Persia

We celebrate the Feast of Purim this month, remembering one of the great occasions in Israel's history when God saved His people from annihilation. The story is told in the book of Esther, and the victory is celebrated still in Jewish communities around the world with fun activities, costumes, food, games – plus the reading of the Old Testament account.

This year, the remembrance of Purim could not come at a more appropriate time. Israel is at war with Hamas in the southern Gaza region and with Hezbollah on Israel's northern border with Lebanon. Both terrorist organizations exist for the sole purpose of destroying Israel and killing as many Jewish people as possible. The similarity between the Biblical description of the enemy of Israel in Esther's time with the present enemies is striking!

In Esther 3:13, we find the letter that was sent to all the provinces of the Persian empire. Everyone was instructed "to destroy, to kill, and to annihilate all the Jews, both young and old, women and children, in one day" (NASV). As I reread this verse, images of the terrorist attack on October 7 against innocent Israeli civilians flashed through my mind.

Of course, we know how the original Purim story ended. The gallows Haman had prepared on which to hang Mordecai – Esther's cousin – was eventually used to hang Haman himself and all his family (7:9-10; 9:6-10). Esther and the Jews in Persia were saved from destruction and, by the king's decree, were even allowed to destroy their enemies in self defense (chapters 8 and 9). Once the dust had settled, the Feast of Purim was instituted, and the Jews celebrated their victory by exchanging gifts and food (9:2) – something still done today in Jewish communities around the world.

Israel Emergency Fund

It is our prayer that soon – hopefully in the very near future – Israel will celebrate another victory over her enemies when the war against Hamas and Hezbollah comes to an end!

Join us in this prayer and in our efforts to support Israeli families affected by the war. Young Israeli soldiers in the IDF have lost their lives defending their land; many others have been wounded or taken prisoner. Hostages are still in captivity, while their families anxiously wait for their return. Many families are still living in temporary housing during their evacuation from danger zones.

Please give generously to our Israel Emergency Fund (www.chosenpeople.ca/israel-emergency-fund). We direct these funds exclusively to our co-workers in Israel to assist individuals and families with medicine, food, clothing and lodging. Our representatives there can meet material needs, bring comfort – and share the hope and love of Jesus the Messiah. Your gift of any amount will be used to bless these Israeli families in a time of desperate need. From the bottom of our hearts ... thank you for your generosity!

Welcome the New Director of the TMC

Angelika is a Jewish believer whose family is originally from Belarus.

She and her husband, Jordan, attend a sister-Messianic congregation in the GTA.

Thank you for praying for us as we searched for the person God would have us install as Director of the Toronto Messianic Centre.

Angelika Webb has recently accepted that position on a part-time basis. She also serves part-time as Church Ministries Coordinator, connecting with churches across Canada and securing opportunities for our Missionaries to teach and preach.

In her new role, she will oversee planning, scheduling and coordinating all the events and activities that will take place at the Centre. As soon as I shared what her responsibilities would be and our vision for the TMC, she developed a bold plan of community events, including monthly movie nights, a Purim party and other festival celebrations, crafts, ESL and Hebrew classes, and weekly Bible studies.

As you can imagine, we are excited about the future ministry of our Mission to the Jews through the Toronto Messianic Centre. The ultimate goal is to bring more Jewish individuals and families to a personal knowledge and relationship with Yeshua, the Jewish Messiah.

Please keep Angelika and her new role in your prayers. Be sure to visit the TMC website (www.torontomessianiccentre.ca) for information about events, activities and classes that might be of interest to you and your Jewish friends!

All that we do is made possible through God's power and grace, and by the continued prayers and financial support of friends like you.

We appreciate your involvement with Chosen People Ministries, your Mission to the Jewish people. We hope to see you at your congregation sometime in the future. Our missionaries are ready to come to your church to introduce our work to your spiritual family and share God's Word from a Messianic Jewish perspective. Encourage your pastor or Missions Committee to contact our office about inviting someone from our team to come as a guest speaker.

May the Lord richly bless you and your family!

Until all Israel is saved,

Jorge Sedaca
Executive Director
