November 2024

Dear Canadian Jewish Missions Partner,
Shalom in Jesus our Messiah! I trust this letter finds you well and rejoicing in the Lord.

Special Events in November

The Lord has graciously given us opportunities to participate in events that enriched our faith, opened doors to new believers' networks, and helped us promote our ministry to the lost sheep of Israel.

Early in November, our staff participated in the Missions

Canada conference in Mississauga, ON.

We had an opportunity to promote Jewish Missions, connect with potential supporters and teach about the Jewish roots of our faith. I led a breakout seminar called "Can There be Peace in the Middle East?" and which created a lot of interest in Israel.

A week later I was in Chicago, Illinois, for two important events. The first was with our Leadership Advisory Team – a group of Chosen People Ministries' leaders from around North America who gather to receive reports of God's work and to deal with important issues related to our Mission. The bonus is the great fellowship we enjoy with one another and the Lord.

My time in Chicago concluded with the Summit on Opposing Antisemitism sponsored by Chosen People Ministries and Moody Bible Institute and hosted by Moody. Over 500 people were present to hear various speakers, including our good friend, Dr. Michael Rydelnik, Vice President and Dean at Moody.

This focus could not come at a better time. While we were at the Antisemitism Summit, a number of antisemitic acts took place around the world, including in Amsterdam, Toronto and at Chicago's DePaul University. Attacks on synagogues, Jewish community centres and Jewish-owned businesses are becoming almost everyday occurrences. So are the missiles, drones and bombs pointed toward Israel. Please remember our partners in the land of Israel as they continue to serve under extreme circumstances.

Here in Canada, we are grateful to the Lord for protecting our Chosen People Ministries congregations in Winnipeg, Hamilton and Toronto, and our sister congregation in Vancouver, as well. But we continue to stand alert against the schemes of the enemy! We know of one Messianic congregation in the Greater Toronto Area that was targeted with vandalism recently; we've reached out to offer them any assistance they might need. Please keep all synagogues and Messianic congregations in Canada in your prayers for protection and safety.

We can find comfort in the fact that the Lord is in control, He's still on His throne, and He will ultimately take care of the enemies of Israel and the Jewish people! But in the meantime, we need to do everything possible to stand with our Jewish brothers and sisters, show our love and concern for their well-being, and oppose any form of antisemitism.

Later in November, I also visited Alberta. I spoke at Kehillat Beth Shechinah, House of Glory Messianic Congregation in Calgary, led by Messianic Rabbi Cal Goldberg. I then had an opportunity to preach at Parkland Baptist Church in Spruce Grove, near Edmonton. I appreciate your prayers for safe travels, good health and effective ministry as our entire Missionary staff travels during the coming winter months.

New Staff Member

This month we welcomed a new person to our Toronto staff. Sebastian Caldwell is joining our Church Ministries team as a Coordinator, connecting with churches to set up meetings for our Missionaries to speak. He is a Bible college graduate who has developed a love for Israel and Jewish missions. Please pray that the Lord will use Sebastian, together with the rest of the Church Ministries team, to put Jewish Missions at the forefront of Canadian churches.

Please continue to pray as we hope to hire others for several open positions here in Canada. May the Lord send the people of His choosing!

Todah Rabah – Thank You Very Much!

We thank you very much for your support of Jewish missions and evangelism during these critical times in the life of Israel and our beloved Jewish people.

All signs around us seem to indicate that the window of opportunity for Jewish people to come to Jesus the Messiah is NOW! We're making every effort to present the Gospel to them in as many ways and means as possible and we're counting on your prayerful and financial support to make this a reality.

Is it possible that the Apostle Paul's statement of "and then all Israel will be saved" (Romans 11:26) is beginning to take place even now? Let us not miss the opportunity to reap a huge harvest of Jewish souls for Messiah.

If you haven't already joined us in this mission to share the Good News with God's chosen people ... why not start today? Your prayers and financial support for our Missionaries and our Mission projects are used by God to sustain our efforts and are nothing less than an investment in His people and His Kingdom.

May the Lord Himself bless you for your faithfulness, love and support of Chosen People Ministries – in ways that are unimaginable and unexpected.

Until all Israel is saved,

Jorge Sedaca
Executive Director
